

C2ST: 0.92

814.37s

A scatter plot on a dark blue background showing two clusters of data points. The points are colored red and white. The clusters are located in the lower-left and upper-right areas of the plot. The red points are concentrated in the center of each cluster, while the white points form a more diffuse outer layer. The overall shape of the combined clusters is elongated along a diagonal from the bottom-left to the top-right.