

C2ST: 0.90

114.54s

A scatter plot on a dark blue background showing two clusters of data points. The clusters are composed of semi-transparent circles. One cluster is red and is located in the lower-left quadrant. The other cluster is red and is located in the upper-right quadrant. A large number of grey points forms a diagonal band connecting the two red clusters, suggesting a transition or a large set of intermediate states. The overall shape is elongated from bottom-left to top-right.